The police understood Garnett bore an old grudge against Casey and that he attacked him for that reason.

EX-MAYOR SAYS THIS IS HIS BIRTHPLACE

John H. Hoy of Lebanon Comes Back For First Time After Spending First Year of Life Here.

NOT ASHAMED OF IT EITHER

John H. Hoy, former mayor of Lebanon, was born in Rushville on a cold dreary morning in February — about the eighth—in the year of our Lord, 1862. Before he had a fair glimpse of life—he had not yet reached the age of one year—his parents bundled him up and moved off to Cincinnati. Son John grew to manhood. He became a traveling salesman. He visited towns and cities in all parts of the United States. But he never happened into Rushville—that is, he never did until yesterday. He never had any idea of coming to Rushville when he left Indianapolis yesterday morning. But he was here.

Ex-Mayor Hoy said he saluted the court house tower in reverence when he entered the city. He talked to some business men and told them how he claimed a right to call Rushville his birthplace. Mr. Hoy said if Rushville was as proud of him as he was of Rushville, after he had looked it over, he would be very much pleased.

Mr. Hoy was eight years mayor of Lebanon and once served as city clerk. He was also county chairman of his party in Boone county. His father was in the cooperage business here for years before John H. Hoy's birth.

RESULT OF FACTORY MISHAP

WHEAT SOWING GETTING START

Proves Difficult Task This Year Because so Much of the Heavy Corn is Down on Ground.

THE WORK IS LATE BY CHOICE

Weeds Interfere Less This Year Than They Once Did—Average Will be up to Average.

Wheat sowing, next to the largest farm task of the autumn, is beginning all about the county. It is a highly important, a very general, and this year a pretty difficult job.

Corn, heavily feared and gigantic of stalk, was toppled by winds following the drowning rains of last month, and now lies, in many fields, in criss-cross formation across the spaces between the rows. The drills can not go through these spaces until a man, or sometimes two of them, have gone ahead and swung the misplaced stalks back into the spaces on either side. This necessarily really doubles the labor of seeding. In some places, too, the weeks are tall and tough, but the disc drills, now in very common use, roll or cut through the worst of them with little difficulty, as compared with the troubles which the old-style shoe drills once encountered in such cases.

The wheat sowing in general will be late this season, by the deliberate wish of the farmers. Last season's experience with the joint worm and the Hessian fly drives the farmers to late sowing, it having been very well demonstrated that the late sown wheat gives less opportunity for the work of these insects than does the earlier sowing.

The acreage of wheat will be at least average. Fertilizers are used perhaps more freely than ever, and in a general way more care is taken to sow safely and well than was once taken. The present good prices, and the seeming improbability of their farming scheme will permit.

SHOPPERS LIKE THE IDEA

Last night saw the end of style show week in Rushville and it was pronounced by merchants and patrons of Rushville stores alike an unqualified success. The stores of the city all combined to make style show week all that had been expected of it. The merchants took recognition of the week by decorating their stores appropriate to the season and some of them offered special bargains for the week.

Many who make Rushville their trading point visited here during the week and inspected the fall stocks of the merchants. The fall openings of the millinery stores and dry good stores, which are generally spread out over several weeks of the fall and spring seasons, were held together, thus giving the shopper who wanted to view the new fashions an opportunity to visit all of the stores during the three days.

DELIVERS AN EPICRAM

Vice-President Marshall Wants "Soft Pedal" on Politics.

(By United Press)

Washington, Sept. 24.—"I don't want to be attending vaudeville while church is going on."

With this epigram Vice-president Marshall today in an interview with the United Press urged congress and the American people to "soft pedal" politics while the nation's foreign relations are critical.

He opposes, he said, the proposed extra session of the senate.

MEXICANS KILL AN AMERICAN SOLDIER

Attack Small Detachment Under Cover of Darkness and Disappear in the Brush.

MAY BE LYNCHED IF FOUND

(By United Press)

Brownsville, Sept. 24.—Private Butterfield was killed and Capt. A. P. Anderson was wounded when thirty Mexicans fired on ten American soldiers who were sleeping in an arroyo near Progreso early today.

The soldiers, taken by surprise, deserted their guns and fled. The weapons were taken by the Mexicans, who disappeared in the brush before reinforcements could arrive.

The Mexicans crossed the Rio Grande above Progreso under cover of darkness and eluded the soldiers who were guarding the banks. The main detachment, stationed four miles from where the attack took place, hurried to the scene and found the camp entirely stripped of equipment. Troop B. of the Twelfth cavalry was summoned and is leading them in search for the Mexicans.

Excitement is high in Mercedes and it is feared an attempt will be made to lynch the Mexicans if they are captured.

FOR DEFENSIVE PURPOSES

(By United Press)

Athens, Sept. 24.—King Constantine today signed a decree ordering a general mobilization of the Greek land forces. The Greek parliament has been summoned to meet next Wednesday to vote military measures.

An official note, explaining the reasons for the mobilization order, said mobilization was Greece's only possible answer to the Bulgarian attitude. Mobilization was ordered, it was added, for defensive purposes.

A great crowd cheered Premier Venizelos widely when he left the foreign office with the decree to obtain the king's signature.

The government is expected to take over control of the railway at once to facilitate mobilization.

Venezelos summoned leaders of all political parties to a conference this afternoon. The object is to solidify all elements behind the government.

PERJURY CHARGE MAY BE RESULT

State in Bell Election Case Intimates May Prosecute Witnesses Who Change Testimony.

FARBER MAY BE AN EXAMPLE

Saloon Keeper Denies Things Which He Testified to Before Grand Jury, it is Stated.

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 24.—Perjury charges may be filed against witnesses for the state in the trial of Mayor Joseph E. Bell, who are "backing down" on evidence said to have been given before the Marion county grand jury that returned the indictment.

Deputy Prosecutor Roach intimated that an attempt may be made to make an example of Harry Farber, saloon keeper, who Roach asserted, gave evidence today in the trial which differed materially from evidence given the grand jury.

On several occasions state witnesses have proved disappointing to the prosecution.

Farber testified today that he gave William Kissel, who has the city mule contract, $25 for the campaign. He gave a negative answer when Prosecutor Rucker asked whether Kissel didn't tell him "he had better make the contribution," that "it would be the best thing to pay," that "it would be the best thing to stand with the administration" and that "if you don't pay the police will lay on you."

Rucker intimated that before the grand jury Farber answered "yes" to all those questions.

Roach then said that the grand jury stenographer probably would be brought in and that the state would then decide whether to institute prosecution.

Michael Ryan for the defense: "This threat of the prosecution made before the jury is unbending to the prosecution in this case."

Objection was made both to the statement of Roach and to the reading of the grand jury questions but the state was sustained.

That the state will require four weeks more to introduce their evidence was the statement of Deputy Prosecutor Roach this afternoon. The court announced this afternoon that a Saturday afternoon session would be held and that a request of the jury for night sessions to hasten the trial was being considered.

The state put on another one of its star witnesses this afternoon in the person of Edward O'Leary, alias "Big Chief" O'Leary, one of the defendants who pleaded guilty.

Preached in This County.

RELATIVES LIVING HERE

Mrs. Alex Solomon of this county and Mrs. Arno Kuhn of Shelby county have gone to Dabney, Ind., to attend the funeral of their father, James G. Huntington, who passed away after a long suffering from diabetes.

Mr. Huntington was known to several of the older residents of both Shelby and Rush counties.

He was a minister in the Christian church for many years, or until his age and affliction made it impossible for him to travel and he was compelled to give up his work.

Yet he never faltered in his duty as a Christian, and through his years of suffering showed the greatest patience.

Besides the two daughters mentioned, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. J. C. Campbell, living in Shelbyville. She, too, was at his bedside when the end came.

While in the ministry Rev. Huntington delivered sermons in several churches in Shelby and Rush counties, Flat Rock, Moscow, Homer and other places. He leaves a brother, Joseph Huntington, at Moscow and a sister, Mrs. Sarah J. Pruitt, of Delaware. The surviving members of his family are his widow, four sons and four daughters.

CLERK AVERS HIS STRENGTH HAS RETURNED

Clifford J. Vance Says Tanlac Improved His Condition.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 23.—The strongest evidence in the world that a medicine is all that is claimed for it is the statement of local people you know who have actually tested it. Clifford J. Vance, a clerk, who lives at 2717½ Harris avenue, Norwood, is one of the many in Cincinnati and vicinity who have testified to the merits of Tanlac, the premier preparation. Mr. Vance said yesterday:

"My blood was in a very bad condition for years, and I have used at least a dozen different medicines in the vain hope that I would be benefited. My stomach also caused me much trouble. I was unable to partake of heavy foods with any degree of satisfaction, because I dreaded the after effects.

"I have used one bottle of Tanlac and am now on my second bottle. I cannot help but notice a wonderful improvement in my condition. The pimples, which literally covered my face and body, are disappearing. I feel much better and stronger in every way. The stomach trouble has been benefited materially. Tanlac has accomplished something for me that many other medicines failed to do."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is sold at F. E. Wolcott's Drug Store.

Mr. Kinnett is employed by the Wilks Construction company at College Corner, Ohio, where he and his bride are now at home.

Several of Mr. and Mrs. John Logans' friends and relatives gave them a complete surprise last Saturday evening, the occasion being their thirty-sixth wedding anniversary. HARRY MYERS and ROSEMARY THEBY in a 3 reel prize society drama

"The Prize Story"

Not many people in this great picture, but when Harry Myers and Rosemary Theby have the center of the stage in one of their gripping love scenes, you would not notice a mob. This wonderful picture is as novel in theme as it is in settings. The fire scene is more than thrilling because it is the real thing. An entire set is burned to the ground because the villain loses his life in the flames to the joy of Rose and Harry.

All who have studied the matter agree that with the signing of the peace treaty, both Germany and England, our two great trade competitors, will engage in a separate war on the United States in an effort not only to re-capture the trade lost during the struggle, but to break down the industrial supremacy of this country. A prominent western business man declared that already foreign manufacturers are planning a "get-together," or syndicating movement against America following the cessation of hostilities in Europe.

If this country is still subjected to the baneful influences of a Democratic tariff law when peace is declared, there can be but one outcome—the industrial bankruptcy of the nation. Already Democratic opportunists are seemingly giving ear to the advice of business men, and dropping hints of a restoration of the duty on sugar, a protective duty on dyestuffs, and various other tariff palliatives. That this is contrary to Democratic doctrine, every man knows, as he also knows that it is intended for campaign consumption next year. The confidence of industrial America will be restored only when the Republican party, the party of practical common sense and sound business ideals, is restored to power.

The 1912 platform of the Democratic party favored "National aid to state and local authorities in the construction and maintenance of post roads." Instead of endeavoring to fulfill that pledge, the Democratic Congress reduced national revenue

The Evidence is at Your Door.

Rushville proof is what you want and the statement of this highly respected resident will banish all doubt:

A. M. Younger, retired farmer, 828 West Tenth Street, Rushville, says: "I have been using Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for about ten years and they have done me good. When a man gets as old as I, he is bound to have more or less trouble with the kidneys. At times I have a dull ache across the small of my back and it gets weak and lame. Then the kidney secretions are too frequent in passage, causing me to get up at night. Every time I have been this way, I have procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Johnson's Drug Store, and they never fail to relieve me in a short time."

and frittered away Federal funds until substantial aid to road improvement was out of the question. The House passed a make-shift, pork-barrel bill, which, if enacted into law, would have scattered small sums in a multitude of communities without providing sufficient funds to rebuild any permanent highway. Republican Senators, aided by some of the Democratic members of that body saved the country from waste that would have resulted from such legislation and recommended, as a substitute, the Bourne plan for cooperation of the nation and states in extensive construction and maintenance of permanent highways. While failure to pass any good measure to which the House gave its approval, yet a course of action which involved breach of the pledge made in the platform leaves nothing to be said in defense of the party in power. The Democrats had an opportunity to make good their promise but they failed.

NOTES OF THE BELL TRIAL

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Indianapolis, Sept. 23.—There is a shrewd suspicion that of all those who heard Attorney Charles W. Miller call Joseph Roach "you assassin," Attorney Roach himself was the most pleased. Roach's shoulders shook with emotion—but it was laughter. And the man who studied law in Michigan city prison laughed because he had successfully trapped the former United States District attorney—the man whose efforts had sent the dynamiters to prison.

Roach is no amateur in a trial of this sort. He has mixed with political trials ever since he began practicing law. While prosecuting Mayor Roberts in Terre Haute he referred so effectively to his criminal career, his confession to murder, subsequent period in jail and ultimate pardon by Gov. Marshall—that he left the jury in tears.

In the present trial Roach could not have done this unless given the opening through some reference to his past by some one "on the other side." Roach laid his trap by continually referring to his opponent as "Kid Miller." In retaliation Miller continually referred by inference to Roach's past—thereby giving Roach his opening. He may demonstrate this in his final address to the jury.

Feeling here in Indianapolis has seemed to change with every breeze in its attitude towards the Bell trial. Following Rucker's opening statement and his oft-repeated assertion that the state would prove every charge made, there was a feeling that the state had a very strong case. Rucker ended with the statement that he had understated his case.

Then came Michael Ryan with his dramatic and sensational charges that the hands of the state were unclean. His assertion that Rucker had hired David (Bat) Masterson, of Terre Haute, Ind., to conduct a school for perjury and his charge that this prosecution was fostered by the Indianapolis News seemed to shake the prosecution and bring a change of sentiment. The state then opened with some of its star witnesses and in steady fashion brought forward damaging evidence, so that its friends are again declaring their confidence in a conviction.

FORWARD PASS TO BE POPULAR

Keen Students of Football Say Open Style Will be Exhibited More Than Ever

EAST LOOKS ASKANCE AT IT

Notre Dame Game Put Them Wise to What Could be Done With Little Forward Passing

BY GEORGE R. HOLMES
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, September 24.—Keen students of football believe that the much maligned forward pass will come into its own this season, and that more of the open style game will be exhibited than in years. If they are right, it marks the capitulation of a raft of Eastern critics and particularly Eastern coaches, who heretofore have gazed down with rather lousy disdain on that play.

The East for years has looked askance at the forward pass. It has been regarded as a last ditch resort—to be used only in the last half or quarter in a final desperate attempt to pull a game out of the fire. It was too dangerous, they snickered audibly. And now that appears McGraw traded them to a probable winner they are guffawing outright.

The first big national combat in 1913 gave 'em a jolt. Little Notre Dame, with a rattling good football team and no reputation, came East to meet Uncle Sam's army aggregation at West Point. What happened is history now. The Hoosiers simply buried the Soldiers under an avalanche of skillful passing, executed by little Gus Dorias and mates. The Army was squelched, 35 to 13. The East gasped. This wasn't football at least not as she was played in the East. However it didn't take the Army long to get "hep" to the situation, and in the annual Army-Navy scrap that year, the Soldiers won hands down. The victory was directly attributed to clever passing. Other Eastern coaches, however, have been slow in following suit.

There still seems to be a wide diversity of opinion about the merits of the spiral tossing. Its opponents say it is too dangerous, that under present rules loss more often results than gain. They also rise to remark that it is too quick—that the whole aspect of a game can be changed in less than minute, and for that reason they liken it to stock market speculation—you're "a millionaire" Be that as it may, it is generally one minute and a pauper the next," conceded that the forward pass adds a lot to the game from the spectator's viewpoint. Two teams, both good on defense, vainly bucking at each other's stonewall lines, and resorting to futile end runs, doesn't appeal to the populace as does the quick flight of the oval with half a dozen boys ready to hop on the neck of the fellow who receives it. Too, there is always a probability that someone will leap high in the air, grab the ball and make the spectacular run through a jagged field that never fails to bring the stands to their feet. The opponents of the pass obtain their argument that when a team is developed in skillful passing as was the Notre Dame eleven in 1913, this danger is reduced to an unimportant minimum. Therefore the whole question simmers down to a question of developing skill in passing, and while the pass may be bad for one team it may be the saviour of another.

The younger school of players that has come up since 1912 and 1913 are better drilled in passing the ball and getting away with it after the catch than the boys of the old school. So, if the forward pass isn't already here it's coming strong, and in the opinion of most coaches it won't be long until it will be the biggest feature of a team's offense.

J. G. Vincent of the Packard Motor Car Co. is slated for the principal address at this evening's session. Automobile men from all parts of the state are in attendance.

A GRAND CHORUS

Philadelphia, Sept. 24.—If Pat Moran's Phillies win the National League pennant this year, three members of the team are going to laugh themselves sick.

They are Al Demaree, the well known cartoonist; Milton Stock, and George Whitted. McGraw considered the latter driftwood, so he cut them loose last season while the Giants were leading the league with every prospect of finishing first.

Stock and Demaree were pretty preevish, as they figured they were being cut out of a world's series melon. When the Giants didn't win the pennant they snickered audibly. And now that appears McGraw traded them to a probable winner they are guffawing outright.

Whitted's case is almost the same. George was sore when Stallings sold him last year to the Phils in the Magee deal, for the Braves looked sure to repeat. Now that the Phils look like they'll figure in the October pie cutting, George has joined in the chortling chorus.

WOMEN CAN HARDLY BELIEVE

How Mrs. Hurley Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Eldon, Mo.—"I was troubled with displacement, inflammation and female weakness. For two years I could not stand on my feet long at a time and I could not walk two blocks without enduring cutting and drawing pains down my right side which increased every month. I have been at that time purple in the face and would walk the floor. I could not lie down or sit still sometimes for a day and a night at a time. I was nervous, and had very little appetite, no ambition, melancholy, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world. After I had tried most every female remedy without success my mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and gained in strength every day. I have now no trouble in any way and highly praise your medicine. It advertises itself."—Mrs. T. HURLEY, Eldon, Missouri.

Remember, the remedy which did this was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For sale everywhere.

It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means have failed. Why don't you try it? Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

STRAUGHNS MAN HELD FOR THEFT

William Willis Arrested at Greenfield and Returned to Newcastle For Breaking Into Store.

PASSED STOLEN CHECKS

William Willis, age 25 years, of Straughns, was returned to Newcastle Thursday from Greenfield and held for breaking into the Haske store and the T. H. I. & E. traction station at Straughns. Willis passed some checks in Greenfield which had been taken from the Straughns store. The checks passed were for $3.00 and $18.00. He also had about $15.00 in cash on his person when taken by the Greenfield officers.

Wednesday Willis was in Greenfield and being under the influence of liquor, was started back to his home at Straughns, the officers there not having heard of any robbery there. Later he showed up again and passed two checks at a Greenfield store, buying a lot of clothing, including sweaters, coat, shoes, necktie, etc. When the firm took the checks to the bank they learned that they had been stolen from the Straughns store.

When the Greenfield city marshall found Willis in town again he locked him up. A search revealed money in six pockets of his clothing. He was taken to the mayor's office, where he was identified as the man who bought the clothing and gave the checks. He was made to remove the clothing and return them to the firm and when he removed his shoes a $5.00 bill was found in one of the bottoms of his sock. He had something over $12 in money on his person. The $8.00 check taken from the store at Straughns has not yet turned up.

EX-MAYOR SAYS THIS IS HIS BIRTHPLACE

John H. Hoy of Lebanon Comes Back For First Time After Spending First Year of Life Here.

NOT ASHAMED OF IT EITHER

John H. Hoy, former mayor of Lebanon, was born in Rushville on a cold dreary morning in February — about the eighth — in the year of our Lord, 1862. Before he had a fair glimpse of life — he had not yet reached the age of one year — his parents bundled him up and moved off to Cincinnati. Son John grew to manhood. He became a traveling salesman. He visited towns and cities in all parts of the United States. But he never happened into Rushville — that is, he never did until yesterday. He never had any idea of coming to Rushville when he left Indianapolis yesterday morning. But he was here.

Ex-Mayor Hoy said he saluted the court house tower in reverence when he entered the city. He talked to some business men and told them how he claimed a right to call Rushville his birthplace. Mr. Hoy said if Rushville was as proud of him as he was of Rushville, after he had looked it over, he would be very much pleased.

Mr. Hoy was eight years mayor of Lebanon and once served as city clerk. He was also county chairman of his party in Boon county. His father was in the cooperage business here for years before John H. Hoy's birth.

The rumor that government secret service men are watching Von Papen's movements was heard in connection with a story that he was going to Mexico.

QUICK ACTION IN DAMAGE SUIT

Complaint For $300 Filed by Fred Beale Today and Judgment of $265 Rendered Soon After.

RESULT OF FACTORY MISHAP

Time of Jury and Court Occupied
With Case of C. F. Pritchard
Against C. H. Cheever.

The time of the court and a jury in the circuit court was occupied part of today hearing the case of C. F. Pritchard against Clifford H. and Curtie B. Cheever to declare surety and judgment for money expended by reason thereof. The case was sent here on a change of venue from Decatur county and five hundred dollars is the demand.

A compromise was reached after the plaintiff had finished its case.

The suit involves the trading of some Knightstown property for a farm in Decatur county which belonged to the Cheevers. John H. Kiplinger and Rollin Turner of Greensburg represent the defendant and Will Hough of Greenfield and Chauncey Duncan of this city the plaintiff.

The final report was filed and approved in the ex parte partition proceedings of Dennis Ryan, Margaret Burke, Frank Sullivan, May Sullivan, Jerry Sullivan and Anna Sullivan.

A final report was also filed and approved in the partition suit and petition to sell real estate of Charles E. and Minnie L. Ronan against Roy E., Earl D. and Ruby B. Ronan.

The final report in the partition suit of William Lewis and others against Tabitha Lewis was also approved.

Fred Beale got quick action on his damage suit filed against the Cardinal Cabinet company of Warsaw, Ind., in the circuit court this morning. He is a minor and brought the suit through his next best friend John S. Beale, for injury suffered to the third finger and thumb of his right hand while employed by the defendant. He asked $300 and shortly after the suit was placed on file a judgment was entered for $265 in his favor, and the defendant company paid the court costs.

The third finger of his hand was cut off and his thumb was badly lacerated. The accident happened before the first of September else the case would have been settled under the terms of the Workingmen's compensation law.

Paul H. McConnell, proprietor of the Court House drug store, who was arrested Thursday on a charge of selling a quart of whiskey to Isaac Messmore, was arraigned before Judge Sparks late Thursday afternoon and admitted to $500 bond.

There were a number of large suits filed in court late Thursday afternoon and Friday morning. Geo. C. Schenck filed a replevin action against Francis M. Tague to recover a welding machine which he alleges Tague holds illegally. He asks $25 damage and the costs of the action.

Gustin A. Schnell, William J. Griffin and George B. Griffin, during business under the firm name and style of Schnell and company in Indianapolis held and account suit against Elmer M. Ryan, who con ducts a general store in the southern part of the county demanding $75.

Harvey M. Cowing and Mary C. Cowing, doing business under the firm name and style of G. E. Cowing and Brothers filed suit on a note against Elmer M. Ryan, who wanted to view the new fashions, an opportunity to visit all of the stores during the three days.

WHEAT SOWING GETTING STARTED

Proves Difficult Task This Year Because so Much of the Heavy Corn is Down on Ground.

THE WORK IS LATE BY CHOICE

Weeds Interfere Less This Year Than They Once Did—Average Will be up to Average.

Wheat sowing, next to the largest farm task of the autumn, is beginning all about the county. It is a highly important, a very general, and this year a pretty difficult job.

Corn, heavily tare and gigantic of stalk, was toppled by winds following the drowning rains of last month, and now lies, in many fields, in criss-cross formation across the spaces between the rows. The drills can not go through these spaces until a man, or sometimes two of them, have gone ahead and swung the misplaced stalks back into the spaces on either side. This necessity really doubles the labor of seeding.

In some places, too, the weeks are tall and tough, but the disc drills, now in very common use, roll or cut through the worst of them with little difficulty, as compared with the troubles which the old-style shoe drills once encountered in such cases.

The wheat sowing in general will be late this season, by the deliberate wish of the farmers. Last season's experience with the joint worm and the Hessian fly drives the farmers to late sowing, it having been very well demonstrated that the late sown wheat gives less opportunity for the work of these insects than does the earlier sowing.

The acreage of wheat will be at least average. Fertilizers are used perhaps more freely than ever, and in a general way more care is taken to sow safely and well than was once taken. The present good prices, and the seeming improbability of their farming scheme will permit.

Excitement is high in Mercedes and it is feared an attempt will be made to lynch the Mexicans if they are captured.

STYLE SHOW WEEK COMES TO CLOSE

Innovation Tried Out by Rushville Merchants Pronounced an Unqualified Success.

SHOPPERS LIKE THE IDEA

Last night saw the end of style show week in Rushville and it was pronounced by merchants and patrons of Rushville stores alike an unqualified success. The stores of the city all combined to make style show week all that had been expected of it. The merchants took recognition of the week by decorating their stores appropriate to the season and some of them offered special bargains for the week.

Many who make Rushville their trading point visited here during the week and inspected the fall stocks of the merchants. The fall openings of the millinery stores and dry good stores, which are generally spread out over several weeks of the fall and spring seasons, were held together and given the shoppers who wanted to view the new fashions, an opportunity to visit all of the stores during the three days.

The government is expected to take over control of the railway at once to facilitate mobilization. Venizelos summoned leaders of all political parties to a conference this afternoon. The object is to solidify all elements behind the government.

DELIVERS AN EPICRITICAL CHARGE

Vice-President Marshall Wants "Soft Pedal" on Politics.

(By United Press.)

Washington, Sept. 24.—I don't want to be attending vaudeville while church is going on."

With this epigram Vice-president Marshall today in an interview with the United Press urged congress and the American people to "soft pedal" politics while the nation's foreign relations are critical.

He opposes, he said, the proposed extra session of the senate.

PERJURY CHARGE MAY BE RESULT

State in Bell Election Case Intimates May Prosecute Witnesses Who Change Testimony.

FARBER MAY BE AN EXAMPLE

Saloon Keeper Denies Things Which He Testified to Before Grand Jury, it is Stated.

(By United Press.) Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 24.—Perjury charges may be filed against witnesses for the state in the trial of Mayor Joseph E. Bell, who are "backing down" on evidence said to have been given before the Marion county grand jury that returned the indictment.

Deputy Prosecutor Roach intimated that an attempt may be made to make an example of Harry Farber, saloon keeper, who Roach asserted, gave evidence today in the trial which differed materially from evidence given the grand jury.

On several occasions state witnesses have proved disappointing to the prosecution.

Farber testified today that he gave William Kissel, who has the city mule contract, $25 for the campaign. He gave a negative answer when Prosecutor Rucker asked whether Kissel didn't tell him "he had better make the contribution," that "it would be the best thing to pay," that "it would be the best thing to stand with the administration" and that "if you don't pay the police will lay on you."

Rucker intimated that before the grand-jury Farber answered "yes" to all those questions.

Roach then said that the grand jury stenographer probably would be brought in and that the state would then decide whether to institute prosecution.

Michael Ryan for the defense: "This threat of the prosecution made before the jury is unbending to the prosecution in this case."

Objection was made both to the statement of Roach and to the reading of the grand jury questions but the state was sustained.

That the state will require four weeks more to introduce their evidence was the statement of Deputy Prosecutor Roach this afternoon. The court announced this afternoon that a Saturday afternoon session would be held and that a request of the jury for night sessions to hasten the trial was being considered.

The state put on another one of its star witnesses this afternoon in the person of Edward O'Leary, alias "Big Chief" O'Leary, one of the defendants who pleaded guilty.

AGED CHRISTIAN MINISTER DIES

James G. Huntington, Who Expired at Dabney, Ind., Formerly Preached in This County.

RELATIVES LIVING HERE

Mrs. Alex Solomon of this county and Mrs. Arno Kuhn of Shelby county have gone to Dabney, Ind., to attend the funeral of their father, James G. Huntington, who passed away after a long suffering from diabetes.

Mr. Huntington was known to several of the older residents of both Shelby and Rush counties. He was a minister in the Christian church for many years, or until his age and affliction made it impossible for him to travel and he was compelled to give up his work. Yet he never faltered in his duty as a Christian, and through his years of suffering showed the greatest patience.

Besides the two daughters mentioned, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. J. C. Campbell, living in Shelbyville. She, too, was at his bedside when the end came.

While in the ministry Rev. Huntington delivered sermons in several churches in Shelby and Rush counties, Flat Rock, Moscow, Homer and other places. He leaves a brother, Joseph Huntington, at Moscow and a sister, Mrs. Sarah J. Pruitt, of Delaware. The surviving members of his family are his widow, four sons and four daughters.

CLERK AVERS HIS STRENGTH HAS RETURNED

Clifford J. Vance Says Tanlac Improved His Condition.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 23.—The strongest evidence in the world that a medicine is all that is claimed for it is the statement of local people you know who have actually tested it. Clifford J. Vance, a clerk, who lives at 2717½ Harris avenue, Norwood, is one of the many in Cincinnati and vicinity who have testified to the merits of Tanlac, the premier preparation. Mr. Vance said yesterday:

"My blood was in a very bad condition for years, and I have used at least a dozen different medicines in the vain hope that I would be benefited. My stomach also caused me much trouble. I was unable to partake of heavy foods with any degree of satisfaction, because I dreaded the after effects.

"I have used one bottle of Tanlac and am now on my second bottle. I cannot help but notice a wonderful improvement in my condition. The pimples, which literally covered my face and body, are disappearing. I feel much better and stronger in every way. The stomach trouble has been benefited materially. Tanlac has accomplished something for me that many other medicines failed to do."

Tanlac, the Master Medicine, is sold at the Wolfe's Drug Store.

All who have studied the matter agree that with the signing of the peace treaty, both Germany and England, our two great trade competitors, will engage in a separate war on the United States in an effort not only to re-capture the trade lost during the struggle, but to break down the industrial supremacy of this country. A prominent western business man declared that already foreign manufacturers are planning a "get-together," or syndicating movement against America following the cessation of hostilities in Europe.

If this country is still subjected to the baneful influences of a Democratic tariff law when peace is declared, there can be but one outcome—the industrial bankruptcy of the nation. Already Democratic opportunists are seemingly giving ear to the advice of business men, and dropping hints of a restoration of the duty on sugar, a protective duty on dyestuffs, and various other tariff palliatives. That this is contrary to Democratic doctrine, every man knows, as he also knows that it is intended for campaign consumption next year. The confidence of industrial America will be restored only when the Republican party, the party of practical common sense and sound business ideals, is restored to power.

The 1912 platform of the Democratic party favored "National aid to state and local authorities in the construction and maintenance of post roads." Instead of endeavoring to fulfill that pledge, the Democratic Congress reduced national revenue and frittered away Federal funds until substantial aid to road improvement was out of the question. The House passed a make-shift, pork-barrel bill, which, if enacted into law, would have scattered small sums in a multitude of communities without providing sufficient funds to build any permanent highway. Republican Senators, aided by some of the Democratic members of that body saved the country from waste that would have resulted from such legislation and recommended, as a substitute, the Bourne plan for cooperation of the nation and states in extensive construction and maintenance of permanent highways. While failure to pass any good measure to which the House gave its approval, yet a course of action which involved breach of the pledge made in the platform leaves nothing to be said in defense of the party in power. The Democrats had an opportunity to make good their promise but they failed.

NOTES OF THE BELL TRIAL

(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

Indianapolis, Sept. 23.—There is a shrewd suspicion that of all those who heard Attorney Charles W. Miller call Joseph Roach "you assassin," Attorney Roach himself was the most pleased. Roach's shoulders shook with emotion—but it was laughter. And the man who studied law in Michigan city prison laughed because he had successfully trapped the former United States District attorney—the man whose efforts had sent the dynamiters to prison.

Roach is no amateur in a trial of this sort. He has mixed with political trials ever since he began practicing law. While prosecuting Mayor Roberts in Terre Haute he referred so effectively to his criminal career, his confession to murder, subsequent period in jail and ultimate pardon by Gov. Marshall—that he left the jury in tears.

In the present trial Roach could not have done this unless given the opening through some reference to his past by some one "on the other side." Roach laid his trap by continually referring to his opponent as "Kid Miller." In retaliation Miller continually referred by inference to Roach's past—thereby giving Roach his opening. He may demonstrate this in his final address to the jury.

Feeling here in Indianapolis has seemed to change with every breeze in its attitude towards the Bell trial. Following Rucker's opening statement and his oft-repeated assertion that the state would prove every charge made, there was a feeling that the state had a very strong case. Rucker ended with the statement that he had understated his case.

Then came Michael Ryan with his dramatic and sensational charges that the hands of the state were unclean. His assertion that Rucker had hired David (Bill) Masterson of Terre Haute and his conduct of a school for perjury and his charge that this prosecution was sponsored by the Indianapolis News seemed to shake the prosecution and bring a change of sentiment. The state then opened with some of its star witnesses and in steady fashion brought forward damaging evidence, so that its friends are again declaring their confidence in a conviction.

FORWARD PASS TO BE POPULAR

Keen Students of Football Say Open Style Will be Exhibited More Than Ever

EAST LOOKS ASKANCE AT IT

Notre Dame Game Put Them Wise to What Could be Done With Little Forward Passing

BY GEORGE R. HOLMES
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, September 24.—Keen students of football believe that the much maligned forward pass will come into its own this season, and that more of the open style game will be exhibited than in years. If they are right, it marks the capitulation of a raft of Eastern critics and particularly Eastern coaches, who heretofore have gazed down with rather lothy disdain on that play.

The East for years has looked askance at the forward pass. It has been regarded as a last ditch resort—to be used only in the last half or quarter in a final desperate attempt to pull a game out of the fire. It was too dangerous, they contended and it never would work against a really formidable defense.

The first big national combat in 1913 gave 'em a jolt. Little Notre Dame, with a rattling good football team and no reputation, came East to meet Uncle Sam's army aggregation at West Point. What happened is history now. The Hoosiers simply buried the Soldiers under an avalanche of skillful passing, executed by little Gus Dorias and mates. The Army was squelched, 35 to 13. The East gasped. This wasn't football at least not as she was played in the East. However it didn't take the Army long to get "hep" to the situation, and in the annual Army-Navy scrap that year, the Soldiers won hands down. The victory was directly attributed to clever passing. Other Eastern coaches, however, have been slow in following suit.

There still seems to be a wide diversity of opinion about the merits of the spiral tossing. Its opponents say it is too dangerous, that under present rules loss more often results than gain. They also rise to remark that it is too quick—that the whole aspect of a game can be changed in less than minute, and for that reason they liken it to stock market speculation—you're "a millionaire" Be that as it may, it is generally one minute and a pauper the next.

conceded that the forward pass adds a lot to the game from the spectator's viewpoint. Two teams, both good on defense, vainly bucking at each other's stonewall lines, and resorting to futile end runs, doesn't appeal to the populace as does the quick flight of the oval with half a dozen boys ready to hop on the neck of the fellow who receives it. Too, there is always a probability that someone will leap high in the air, grab the ball and make the spectacular run through a jugged field that never fails to bring the stands to their feet. The opponents of the pass obtain their argument that when a team is developed in skillful passing as was the Notre Dame eleven in 1913, this danger is reduced to an unimportant minimum. Therefore the whole question simmers down to a question of developing skill in passing, and while the pass may be bad for one team it may be the saviour of another.

The younger school of players that has come up since 1912, and 1913 are better drilled in passing the ball and getting away with it after the catch than the boys of the old school. So, if the forward pass is already here its coming strong, and in the opinion of most coaches it won't be long until it will be the biggest feature of a team's offense.

A GRAND CHORUS

* * * * * Philadelphia, Sept. 24.—If Pat Moran's Phillies win the National League pennant this year, three members of the team are going to laugh themselves sick. * They are Al Demaree, the well known cartoonist; Milton Stock, and George Whitted. McGraw considered the latter driftwood, so he cut them loose last season while the Giants were leading the league with every prospect of finishing first. Stock and Demaree were pretty peevish, as they figured they were being cut out of a world's series melon. When the Giants didn't win the pennant they snickered audibly. And now that appears McGraw traded them to a probable winner they are guffawing outright.

Whitted's case is almost the same. George was sore when Stallings sold him last year to the Phils in the Magee deal, for the Braves looked sure to repeat. Now that the Phils look like they'll figure in the October pie cutting, George has joined in the chortling chorus.

WOMEN CAN HARDLY BELIEVE
How Mrs. Hurley Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Eldon, Mo.—"I was troubled with displacement, inflammation and female weakness. For two years I could not stand on my feet long at a time and I could not walk two blocks without enduring cutting and drawing pains down my right side which increased every month. I have been at that time purple in the face and would walk the floor. I could not lie down or sit still sometimes for a day and a night at a time. I was nervous, and had very little appetite, no ambition, melancholy, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world. After I had tried most every female remedy without success, my mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and gained in strength every day. I have now no trouble in any way and highly praise your medicine. It advertises itself."—Mrs. T. HURLEY, Eldon, Missouri.

Remember, the remedy which did this was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For sale everywhere. It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means have failed. Why don't you try it? Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

STRAUGHNS MAN HELD FOR THEFT

William Willis Arrested at Greenfield and Returned to Newcastle For Breaking Into Store.

PASSED STOLEN CHECKS

William Willis, age 25 years, of Straughns, was returned to Newcastle Thursday from Greenfield and held for breaking into the Hatbox store and the T. H. I. & E. traction station at Straughns. Willis passed some checks in Greenfield which had been taken from the Straughns store. The checks passed were for $3.00 and $18.00. He also had about $15.00 in cash on his person when taken by the Greenfield officers.

Wednesday Willis was in Greenfield and being under the influence of liquor, was started back to his home at Straughns, the officers there not having heard of any robbery there. Later he showed up again and passed two checks at a Greenfield store, buying a lot of clothing, including sweaters, coat, shoes, necktie, etc. When the firm took the checks to the bank they learned that they had been stolen from the Straughns store.

When the Greenfield city marshal found Willis in town again he locked him up. A search revealed money in six pockets of his clothing. He was taken to the mayor's office, where he was identified as the man who bought the clothing and gave the checks. He was made to remove the clothing and return them to the firm and when he removed his shoes a $5.00 bill was found in one of the bottoms of his sock. He had something over $12 in money on his person. The $8.00 check taken from the store at Straughns has not yet turned up.

Mr. McFarlan escaped uninjured, but his machine was badly damaged about the front end. The child was playing in the street and was not seen by Mr. McFarlan until it was too late to avoid striking it without running into a tree.
